For Recovery of Pontiff—
Physician States Trouble is Relapse From Recent Attack of Influenza.

Rome, April 10.—The condition of the pope was found to be practically unchanged when his physician, Prof. Ettore Marchiafava, paid the pontiff an early morning visit today.

He had passed a comparatively calm night, disturbed only by occasional fits of coughing and periods of great perspiration.

The pope rejoiced to see the morning bring a change in the weather. A splendid sun streamed through the ample window of his bedroom.

Although this seemed to encourage his spirits, he continued to feel nauseated and averse to taking any nourishment, notwithstanding the efforts made by his own cook, Stefano Inchiostro, an old servant who came with him from Venice. Inchiostro keeps a special cow in the Vatican garden for his master's milk.

Prof. Marchiafava said after his morning visit that he considers the unchanged condition of the pope as auguring well for a decided turn to the better. The only specific apprehension is heart weakness.

In all the churches of Rome this morning special prayers were offered for the recovery of the pope. The faithful recited with the clergy the Latin: "Oremus Pro Pontifici et Nostrum." ("Let us pray for our pontiff plus.")

Dr. Amici, who spent the night at the pope's bedside, said this morning that his patient rested sufficiently well. His temperature is now a little above 97.

Dr. Amici denied most emphatically the persistent reports that the pope is suffering from nephritis and reiterated that the whole trouble is a relapse from his recent attack of influenza.

Prof. Marchiafava, this afternoon gave confirmation of the continuance of the improvement in the pope's condition. He said that his only fear was that complications might arise more especially through lack of nourishment, owing to the absence of appetite. Efforts will be made to administer nourishment.

Cincinnati, April 10.—Mrs. Elizabeth Cox, mother of George B. Cox, former political leader and financier of this city, died suddenly here yesterday. Mrs. Cox was 57 years of age.HOUSE CAUCUS STILL WRESTLING WITH THE TARIFF REVISION BILL

Washington, April 10.—After a day conference with President Wilson today, Representative Hardwick, of Georgia, declared he would submit to the house caucus an amendment to the tariff bill to put sugar on the free list in March, 1916, instead of three years from the date of the passage of the bill as now proposed. Mr. Hardwick predicted a fight for free sugar in the house and told the president he believed it to be discriminatory to give sugar growers three years time to adjust themselves while other products were immediately to become free.

The senate finance committee has determined not to have hearings on the tariff bill. The committee takes the view that the hearings conducted by the house and ways and means committee in January were sufficient practically to determine all matters in connection with tariff revision.

PIERY KANSAN WILL LEAD
THE PROGRESSIVES

Victor Murdock, the red-headed representative from Kansas, the original insurgent of the House of Representatives who started all the troubles which led to the overthrow of "Cacile Joe" Cannon, has gone a step further. He has become the leader of the Progressive party on the floor of the House.

Three months ago Murdock was not certain of the position he would take between the Republicans, with whom he was then acting, and the new party. But with the opening of the new congress he has come to a conclusion. The Kansan is brilliant and daring, and he may make the new party a power on the floor where others would fail. He is probably the only Progressive on the floor who could match John B. Mann, the Republican leader, and Oscar W. Underwood, the majority leader.

MILLIONS LOST
BY SHIP OWNERS

New York, April 10.—The year of 1913 has proved thus far the most disastrous three months that ship owners on both sides of the Atlantic have experienced for fifty years. Damage to deep sea vessels alone is estimated will amount to $7,000,000. This does not include the loss suffered by coasting trade of the United States estimated at several millions. During January alone one agency reports the partial wreckage of 328 sailing vessels and 110 steamships.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY

House passes bill providing for commission to select county site for penitentiary.

Cunningham bill, establishing agricultural commission, delayed in house; attempts to cut big salaries of commissioners fail.

Two flood relief measures put through house, one authorizing political subdivisions to lift the lid from tax levy and bond limitations so as to get funds to restore public works, and the other permitting the deposit of state funds in building and loan associations.

Senate adopts resolution providing for coal mine inquiry, thus delaying final action on the anti-screen bill.

Columbus, April 10.—Following the passage of eighteen bills among which was the Bigelow measure revoking the fifty-year franchise of the Cincinnati Traction company and nine-hour work day for women the lower house of the legislature today passed a resolution that the legislature adjourn sine die April 28. Under the resolution the legislature would complete its active work April 18 and then recess until the 28th when final adjournment would be taken. The senate must and probably will concur in the resolution. About seventy bills are still before the house for final passage.

Columbus, April 10.—Carrying $250,000 as a preliminary appropriation for a site, the administration bill for the establishment of a new penitentiary on open ground in the country was passed by the house yesterday. The Republican minority prevented a final vote on the bill when the Democratic whip, Mr. Warnes, first asked it, but later withdrew opposition.

Passage by the house practically assures the abandonment of the present prison and the transfer of 1000 to 1500 convicts, many of them held in idleness, to a farm prison.

Samuel J. Black of Wyandot, author of the bill, sought to demonstrate that by use of convict labor the new prison will not cost as much as it would to complete the reconstruction of the old prison, as urged by ex-Governor Harmon.

"Governor Harmon's plan would cost $1,000,000 to finish, and then we would have only a pile of junk," he said. From the estimate of ex-Governor Harris' commission of $2,800,000 as the cost of a new prison he deducted $500,000 as the value of the present site of the building, including 125,000 worth of new cell blocks, and $500,000 as the saving by use of convict labor, which was not contemplated by the Harris commission. He said the new prison could be built for $100,000 less than to carry out the Harmon recommendations. He figured a further saving by using convicts to make steel cells.

Mr. Kilpatrick said the legislative commission of 1911 made no effort to put through a bill because Governor Harmon said he would veto it. Mr. Diser compelled the Democrats to listen to Governor Harmon's last message against a new prison, while Mr. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 2.)

Proposed New West Main Street M. E. Church, To Be Built
This Summer in West Newark at Estimated Cost of $30,000

The Advocate is pleased to present to its readers today a half tone cut of the proposed new West Main Street M. E. church.

The building is to face west on Neal avenue, and is to contain accommodations for church and Sunday school on the first and second floors and lecture and social rooms in the basement.

The church auditorium will seat 470 on the main floor and 65 in each of the balconies. Sunday school will seat 300 on the first floor and 100 in the balcony.

The church and Sunday school rooms are separated with a movable partition, which, on special occasions is to be opened to throw all the space together in both church and Sunday school, thus bringing to view of the pulpit more than 1000 seated persons, the Sunday school being directly in front of the speaker. Choir and organ are near the pulpit, the choir seating 30.

The Sunday school room contains 14 large class rooms, besides a large primary class room.

The special feature of the first and second floors is the unobstructed view in all directions, perfect circulation and ideal natural lighting—all produced through economical disposition of the space.

Basement contains fully equipped kitchen, heating plant, storage rooms and toilet rooms.

The interior finish is to be oak, and the exterior is to be brick trimmed with cut stone. The total cost is estimated to come within $30,000.

Edwin E. Pruitt & Co., of Columbus, who makes a specialty of church designs, are the architects.

Help Zanesville Now;
Newark People Aroused
To Needs of Sister City

Should Newark's contributions to Zanesville flood sufferers consist of money or household necessities? The Advocate answers: "Both."

There has been a little mild-mannered criticism of the purchase of supplies here and some have urged that money should be sent to Zanesville in order that the merchants who are themselves flood sufferers should sell supplies to the people.

Suppose over 9,000 Newark people were without homes and household goods. Could the local merchants immediately supply their needs? E. J. Barney, the multi-millionaire of Dayton, was in the bread line the other day. He had plenty of money but nothing to eat. Zanesville stores can in a manner supply what is needed, but their stocks are insufficient. That is why Newark sent a large shipment of shovels and rubber boots to Zanesville last week. None could be bought in Zanesville. The supply had been exhausted. That is why the Board of Trade committee bought 22 iron beds and complete outfits yesterday and shipped them to Zanesville. One report had it that 11 beds had been sent out at a cost of $400 but that was a mistake. Newark merchants sold to the committee the beds, bedding, springs, mattresses, comforters, blankets, pillows, etc., at actual cost.

When the Advocate called upon the Red Cross officers and Mr. A. E. Starr of the relief committee last Sunday and asked what Zanesville needed, the immediate answer was "beds, bedding and household furnishings."

Money is of course, needed too and the Advocate is collecting a very nice fund for Mr. Starr's committee. Don't stop giving money but give supplies as well as money.

The Advocate issued not less than 100 tags on Wednesday and many calls have been received Thursday. People are telephoning to this office asking for instructions and for tags, saying they have household goods, clothing, and furniture which they want to give. Others are leaving supplies at D. C. Metz' store in East Newark and at the Conrad grocery on North Third street. Supplies left at either place will be cared for and shipped promptly.

Ad C. Gumbert, director of charities of Pittsburgh, who has been in Zanesville this week, received a telegram from that city Wednesday which stated that $5,000 had been donated for Zanesville flood sufferers by prominent citizens who desired to know whether Zanesville wanted the amount in cash or in supplies. Mr. Gumbert immediately wired back asking that bedding, furniture and provisions be purchased with the money and the goods sent to Zanesville as soon as possible.

Speaking of Mr. Gumbert's work the Zanesville Signal says:

"The work of Mr. Gumbert in Zanesville has been invaluable. With his experience in handling charities he arrived here at a time when his services were most needed. Night and day he has been busy and the business men and sufferers extend their thanks to him for the vast amount of good he has accomplished."

A car of supplies from Newark went to Zanesville Wednesday evening, and many people are sending beds, clothing and furniture to the freight station today. In order to be taken free to Zanesville the packages must be properly tagged and delivered to the B. and O. freight station. Get tags at the Advocate office. Provisions may be left at Conrad's grocery and D. C. Metz will accept supplies of any kind and deliver them to the station. Send money or checks to the Advocate. Both money, household supplies and provisions are needed.

Last night's Zanesville Signal printed a big account of Newark's relief work. The people here are responding nobly and generously and their good work is much appreciated. It is not too late to help. Send your contributions to the Advocate now. If you prefer to give household supplies that will be just as welcome. Zanesville needs help.

The cash contribution of the employees of the Licking Light and Power company was today increased from $25 to $32.

At the meeting of Licking Aerie, No. 37, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Tuesday evening, the sum of one hundred dollars was sent William R. Galleher, secretary of Zanesville Aerie, No. 302, to be used for the relief of flood sufferers.

CONDITIONS
ARE GROWING MORE SERIOUS

New Orleans, April 10.—Captain Sherill announced this afternoon that if the levees hold the water now in sight indicated a stage of 22.5 feet at New Orleans about May 1, or six inches more than the record flood stages of last spring. This would give a stage ranging from one to two feet over the last year's record at points between New Orleans and Vicksburg.

MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE
JURY'S VERDICT

Mr. Gilrad O. April 10.—Guilty of murder in the second degree was the verdict returned early today by the jury in the case of John Morrow, charged with killing the baby of Mary Anna Pratt, after being out five years.

Morrow was a roomer at Pratt's home and was a cousin of the child in the belief that it was the only obstacle in the way of his planned elopement with Mrs. Pratt. Mrs. Pratt testified that she had been infatuated with Morrow and that at one time she had left her husband to live with him.

The jury heard testimony from Morrow that he had been out five years for a similar crime.

RELIEF PLAN EVOLVED

By the Governor to Relieve Sufferers—Would Have Mayors Appoint Commission to Distribute Money.

Marietta, April 10.—Governor Cox and members of the Ohio flood relief committee crossed the river in row boats this morning to inspect the damage done by the flood here. The local relief committee escorted the committee over the city. Shortly before noon the party left for Portsmouth and other points on the river.

Zanesville, O., April 10.—Assurance was given Zanesville yesterday afternoon by Gov. Cox and members of the Ohio relief commission that all means of relief possible for the state to grant will be given the city. The governor was told that the loss here Helen Graye and her most excellent $500,000 for five bridges washed out by the Muskingum river.

Governor Cox after visiting the flooded districts said that the damage in Zanesville was proportionate to that in Dayton and Hamilton. Only half of the business district was submerged, but flooding of the residence districts was relatively greater.

The governor's party dined at the military headquarters established by General C. C. Weybrecht and the relief committee was addressed by the governor and H. H. Johnson of Cleveland. They promised a just share of whatever relief is provided. The inspection trip was continued last night to Marietta, Middleport, Pomeroy, Gallipolis, Ironton and Portsmouth will be visited in turn.

Pittsburg wired that $5000 more had been donated and this money will be expended for supplies, such as beds and bedding. Ad C. Gumbert, director of charities of Pittsburgh, returned home last evening well satisfied with the systematic work of the relief committee. The city is still in darkness, but electric lights are promised for Saturday or Monday.

Major F. C. Gerlach and three companies of militia are still on duty.

Governor James M. Cox has evolved a plan for the rebuilding of homes washed away by the floods in Zanesville and other cities belonging to the poorer class which is considered to be an ideal one. The plan as outlined by Governor Cox to citizens here Wednesday is as follows:

That the legislature enact laws giving the mayor of cities the power to appoint a commission of prominent business men, without pay, to act as distributing agents of money. The commission to investigate conditions in flooded districts and report to the mayor. Those owning lots to be given a loan of from $100 to $400 with which to establish a credit and start the erecting of new homes on their lots. This will then give them an opportunity to borrow

BOYS HELD ON CHARGE OF MURDERING NEWARK BOY AT
XENIA, O., ARE DISCHARGED

Xenia, April 10.—William Roan, 20, Oscar Ware, 19, both colored, and Pearl Nicely, 19, a white boy, all of whom were held by the police on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Harold White, 15, of Newark, were discharged from custody Wednesday following the development in the case. It was determined that White's death was due to alcoholism though a slight injury to the brain was probably one of the contributing causes.

According to the story related by White's companions after they recovered from the effects of the liquor, the quartet were together early last Saturday evening. They found 20 quarts of whiskey in a box car and all of them drank more than was good for them.

They started up town from the railroad yards but had not walked far when White fell to the sidewalk. In the fall, he struck his head on the pavement. His companions attempted to get him to his feet but they were not handle the unconscious lad. The commotion attracted the attention of nearby residents who notified the police. The unconscious lad was taken to police headquarters and his three companions were detained. White remained unconscious until his death occurred Sunday morning. The autopsy held Sunday revealed the fact that there was a slight injury to the brain behind the frontal bone, probably caused by his fall.

When the boys told their story to the police officers, they were relieved of any responsibility for the death of White and were dismissed from custody.

Earl White, a brother of the deceased, who has been attending Wilberforce University here, was not aware of his brother's presence in Xenia until a month ago. Harold had been in the city for six or eight months. The brothers met accidentally and had planned a trip to the home of their parents in Newark during the month of May.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Curing Tuberculosis.
"No drug, gas or other material has yet been discovered," says the National Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, "that will kill the germs of tuberculosis without doing serious injury to the body." The only real cure recognized by the society consists in "fresh air, suitable food and rest, or exercise taken under the direction of a physician." This would include tuberculosis, which was condemned by a special commission appointed to investigate it by the British government in 1906, reporting that "Professor Koch's theories regarding the value of tuberculosis are wrong in their entirety." To destroy the germ is not curing the disease, and the prevention of the disease is not to be secured by avoiding the germ, but by maintaining proper nutrition. Tuberculosis can be cured if taken in time. Almost the same words might be applied to cancer, although a magic remedy is still being sought for that disease, which has not yet been organized as a disease of nutrition, incurable by any such remedy as tuberculosis.

Baseball As a Revealer of Character

FROM now on," said Phoebe, somewhat dladid fully, "I suppose we shall hear nothing but baseball vernacular."

"Why especially now," inquired Kadge.

"The Big Leagues open today, whatever that may mean. Already the baseball toxin is permeating the atmosphere of our house."

"I wonder why men are so crazy over it," retorted Kadge. "I don't see much in it."

"Nor I either," replied Phoebe. "To be sure, I have never seen many games, so perhaps I am no judge. I went to one once; no, I didn't go, I was dragged by enthusiastic friends. But I didn't see that the game was much. Some players looped around the track, or whatever you call it, while some of the others were off in the weeds hunting the ball. I applauded at the wrong time, and yelled for the wrong side, which disgusted the people who took me. But as I was disgusted myself with the game, I guess we were even. The score was something like twenty-six to nothing. When I told my brother about it, he said the less I talked about a game like that the better; that that was no game. But I didn't see why! They did a lot of running and batting and things like that."

"Don't ask me to explain," said Kadge. "I wouldn't know a batter if I fell over one, not that kind."

"But there's one thing I did discover in that game," went on Phoebe. "What?"

"It's a game that shows up wonderfully. If I was going to marry a man, I would like to see him play baseball. There was a fellow there who was a catcher, I think that's what the one who catches the balls is called. It was a delight to watch him catch that ball. And the way he did it was just a picture of the sort of man he was. He watched the ball coming, and he was as calm and steady as a rock. And at just the right moment, he grabbed it. He didn't try for it too soon, nor wait until it was too late. He didn't get nervous or flustered. He had himself perfectly in hand, and he got the ball every time. It was fascinating to me to watch him. And I felt that in business or home life, he would be just that calm and steady and ready. He would be one of those people who are always there with the goods, without fuss or excitement, no matter what might be wanted. I told my brother about him, but he said all catchers were like that. But I don't believe it. Or else not all men could be catchers. For I know lots of fussy, hasty people who would never catch a ball. They'd try for it too soon, or they'd fumble it, or they'd be too late. As a study in human nature, baseball might be enjoyable."

"That's so," replied Kadge. "I never thought of taking it in that way."

NEW QUEEN OF GREECE AS GERMAN ARMY OFFICER

TODAY'S BEAUTY RECIPES.
By Mme. D'Mille.

"A simple and reliable remedy for skin eruptions, chaps, cold sores, pimples and eczema is Mother's Salve. It is healing, cooling, soothing and antiseptic in action. It should be in every family medicine cabinet."

To restore plumpness and symmetry of form without becoming fat, the Vaucaire home treatment is recommended. Make a syrup with 1/2 cupful of sugar and a pint of water, and into this stir an ounce of gallot; take two teaspoonfuls before meals. "Just worrying about hair falling out won't help any woman. A few minutes' work is better than hours of worry. Faded and brittle hair, falling hair and baldness are caused by a parasite that destroys the life of the hair. Mother's Shampoo removes these parasites, leaves the scalp healthy and clean and makes the hair fine and fluffy. Enough for several months can be bought at any drug store for 25c."

"Scattered, sallow and muddy looking complexions, together with skin eruptions, often present in the spring require a cleansing treatment instead of face powder. An ideal complexion beautifier is easily made at home by dissolving an original package of may-stone in a half pint of witch hazel. It makes the skin soft, fair and lovely."

To remove superfluous hair on face or forearms make a paste with a little water and powdered delonix; cover the hairs for two minutes, then remove and wash the skin. Delonix does not discolor the skin and is safe and sure."

FLOOD NOTES

Edward A. Deeds, vice president and general manager of the National Cash Register company, has been on a month's trip to Panama with Mrs. Deeds. They thus escaped the anxieties and dangers connected with the recent flood at Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stillion have received a letter from their daughter Georgia, who is located at McConnellsville, O., telling of the terrible destruction by high waters in that vicinity. Homes, stores and buildings were swept away and hundreds of people are left destitute. Scores of bridges are gone and the railway tracks for hundreds of feet were swept away and it has been a problem how to care for the flood victims, 142 families being homeless. Farmers have been hauling in wagon after wagon load of provisions and labor has been commanding fifty cents an hour.

Frank L. Miller of 129 South Fifth street shipped 74 loaves of bread to the flood sufferers at Zanesville today.

Electric cars are superseding the old compressed air cars in the streets of Paris.

Queen of the Kingdom of Greece, who has just stepped out of the assassination of King George, is a German army as well as a monarch.

She is an honorary colonel in the Second Regiment of the Legions of the Guard, a position she occupies doubtless as the Emperor of Germany's military figure in form.

Coughs and Consumption
Coughs and colds, when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. You will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough, and I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, she would not be living today." Known for forty-three years as the best remedy for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00. Recommended by F. D. Hall.

New York is the greatest market for California fruit. But it is said that lemons from any other part of the country are squeezed there with equal facility.

"Any gent objecting to prunes needn't stay for dessert."

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Story of The Bad News Boy.

The Deacon Begged Will to Hurry.

G RUMPT, groochy, all day long. Never singing a merry song. Never happy with friend or toy. Don't be like the Bad News Boy.

That's a little verse daddy repeated to Jack and Evelyn one evening. Of course the children wanted to know at once what daddy meant by "the Bad News Boy."

"Oh," said daddy, "he was a boy I knew once who never had anything good to tell. If you met him in the morning and the sun was shining brightly, the birds were singing and everything looked gay and happy he would look up at the sky and say in a whining voice, 'I'm afraid it's going to rain soon.'"

"Of course when something really bad happened, such as a fire or the minister was taken ill or the rain didn't come for a long time and crops refused to grow, the Bad News Boy seemed happy."

"But he was cured at last, and this was how it happened:

"His cousin Will came to visit him and spend some weeks at his house. Will was a merry, light hearted, cheerful boy, just the opposite of the Bad News Boy, and the parents of the latter liked him very much. Of course they had tried to cure their own boy of his bad habit, but had not been able to do so. They decided to try again when Will came. They bought a nice new bicycle and told the two boys they might have it to ride upon. Will was delighted and said so, but the Bad News Boy said:

"I don't want to ride on it. Any one who rides on that thing will fall off and get hurt." Will said, 'I'm not afraid.' And for a week or so he had a fine time on the wheel. Then something happened. He was riding along the road one day when Deacon Robinson's horse caught fire. The deacon's horse was sick and could not be harnessed, so the deacon begged Will to ride as quickly as he could into town to fetch the firemen. Will did so, of course, and the firemen got there in time to save the horse.

"Will was the hero of the town. Every one had a good word for him. The people made so much of him that the Bad News Boy became envious. 'Booth; it wasn't so much to do,' he said to his father. 'No,' said his father, 'but if you had been willing to ride the bicycle and had been on the spot instead of Will you might have been the hero instead of him.'

"That made the Bad News Boy think. He wasn't a stupid boy, and when he saw how little good his gloominess did him he tried hard to overcome it. It took a long time, but he succeeded at last in becoming a Good News Boy instead of a Bad News Boy."

THE DISCIPLE OF DEATH.

THE base of a fly's feet is cuplike in shape. In these cups the fly catches degrees of suction which permits it to walk on glass and other smooth surfaces. These same cuplike depressions make it readily possible for the fly to pick up all manner of diseases from the many decaying substances over which it passes. However, the fly carries disease on other parts of its body. Its wings and hairs that cover it are frequently laden with germs. The germs of typhoid fever are given off in great numbers in the discharges of patients. Flies often feed on this material. Their feet and bodies become smeared with germs. The insect carries them to the dining room and deposits them on the bread that some one is about to eat or washes them off in the milk into which it may fall. The germs of tuberculosis are given off in large numbers in the sputum of patients. Flies gain access to this sputum and may leave it loaded with the germs of consumption. Dysentery and infantile diarrhea are carried in the same way. Disease bearing is by no means limited to the intestinal germ disease, however. It is said that ophthalmia or blindness, smallpox and other of the better known communicable diseases have been traced to the fly. Where actual laboratory proof does not exist circumstantial evidence is very strong. One investigator estimated the number of germs on a single fly, and he studied and him to place the figures at 6,500,000.

Folk Dances as Part Of Celebrations of CHILDREN'S DAY

© 1913, by American Press Association.

LITTLE ONES DANCING IN CENTRAL PARK, NEW YORK.

DURING the last few years dancing has taken a prominent place in the school life of Young America. Only recently exhibitions of folk dances were given in Central park, New York, in which thousands of children participated, and the movement to introduce dancing as a part of the regular school life has spread rapidly.

But while dancing is only now entering into the regular school routine of American children it has long held a prominent place among other nations and people. Right here in the United States the native Indians have long held dancing to be one of the principal functions of official ceremonies. In fact, dancing had its bad effects with the Indians, for they used to dance themselves into frenzies which led to massacres.

In China, in the pingvoo, or dance of the bucklers, and in the tiao, or dance of warriors, similar appeals to war are made. Another Chinese dance, the ouwang, is a veritable ballet in which the different movements describe the struggle of the emperor against revolt.

The natch girls are attached to the temple of northern India and dance before the idols daily; also they dance at entertainments and at funerals. They constitute a distinct class by themselves, the girls being trained by their mothers and positions in the temple being handed down from one generation to another.

The bayaderas are the dancing girls of southern India and are much like their northern sisters. They are recruited from the families of the working people and merchants and receive a small fixed salary from the temples to which they are attached.

The sarunga, who dance the dances of Java, are famed for the courtier-like grace and delicacy with which they move their hands and fingers. With their faces covered with gold powder, their heads crowded with heavy helmets of flowers and precious stones, these girls look like little idols.

The geishas of Japan often start their education in singing and dancing at the age of seven years. Some of the purely poetic dances remaining are the dance of the butterflies, of the flowers, of the rain, of the tea leaf and of the fan.

Tragic Applause.

Two friends, jenners at Brown, were attending a French play one evening when the leading man suddenly appeared before the curtain and made a few brief remarks.

"Why did you applaud him so vigorously when he made his speech?" inquired the tall young man of his friend.

"So that folks would think I understood French," replied the other confidentially. "What did he say?"

"He said the remainder of his part must be taken by an understudy, as his father was dying."—Boston Herald.

Your Hair Needs Parisian Sage

Use It as a Dressing—Banish Dandruff—Stop Falling Hair and Scalp Itch.

Parisian Sage, the delightful and penetrating hair tonic, is a true hair nourisher. It penetrates into the scalp, gets to the roots of the hair, kills the dandruff germs, and supplies the hair with just the kind of nourishment it needs to make it grow abundantly.

Since its introduction into America Parisian Sage has had an immense sale, and here are the reasons: It does not contain poisonous sugar of lead, nitrate of silver or any injurious ingredient.

It cures dandruff in two weeks, by killing the dandruff germ. It stops falling hair.

It promptly stops itching of the scalp.

It makes the hair soft, glossy and luxuriant.

It gives life and beauty to the hair. It is not sticky or greasy. It is the daintiest perfumed hair tonic made.

It is the best, the most pleasant and invigorating hair dressing.

In watching and pursuing
The light that lies

In making Shredded Wheat Biscuit we steam-cook the grains of whole wheat, draw them out into delicate, filmy shreds, form them into little loaves or Biscuit and bake them a crisp, golden brown.

Because of its biscuit form you can do so many things with Shredded Wheat which you cannot do with other breakfast cereals.

For breakfast heat the Biscuit in the oven a few moments to restore crispness; then pour hot milk over it, adding a little cream; salt or sweeten to suit the taste. It is deliciously nourishing and wholesome for any meal with stewed prunes, baked apples, sliced bananas, preserved peaches, pineapple or other fruits. At your grocer's.

LIFE WORK OF A FORMER DENISON MAN

In the American Magazine not long ago Emerson thought gave a most interesting story entitled "Burns of the Mountains," being an account of a southern mountaineer who is summing his own people. The story which is illustrated with pictures by some of the fine work that is the work of James Anderson Burns, president of the Oneida, Kentucky, Baptist Institute.

Mr. Burns is well known in Newark and in Kentucky where he attended college about twenty years ago. Mr. Burns says:

Denison was instrumental in giving me the vision which has made me a materialist in the sense of a mountaineer, and I have been a student of Christian education from Denison.

Mr. Burns says that he still owes about $100,000 to the Oneida Institute. He says that he has been able to pay about $10,000 of it. He says that he has been able to pay about $10,000 of it. He says that he has been able to pay about $10,000 of it.

To these people in the heart of the country was born a man who became a Hardshell Baptist minister. He was the father of several sons, of whom one J. A. Burns is giving his life-work after the enduring of many hardships to the lessening of hardships and the advancement of his neighbor and his neighbor's children.

Burns had not a dollar when he began to build his college. He received a donation of $50, and it was on a little piece of land, also offered in donation that Burns began to build. He began it all alone. He quarried and laid the foundations of Oneida Institute first building by himself.

From this humble beginning the institute has grown and last year 524 pupils were enrolled there.

The pupils are of one another, all being assisted by the indomitable will and courage of the master, J. A. Burns, until the Oneida Institute has become the beacon light of this mountain district.

LOSS VERY GREAT AT HAMILTON, O.

Mr. Archibald S. White, who has just visited Hamilton, Ohio, writes to a Newark friend, saying:

"Your esteemed favor of the 5th has reached me upon my return from Hamilton, where I have been trying to do something to relieve the distressed conditions prevailing there. The press reports concerning Hamilton scarcely reflect the awful conditions existing there. Indeed they quite beggar description."

Mr. White, who was in Pittsburgh a few days ago, has made tentative arrangements to supply Hamilton with a million dollars. Referring to Mr. White, the Cincinnati Times-Star says:

"The activity of Mr. White will greatly lessen the tension now existing in that city because of the financial depression that has followed the flood."

TOURISTS HAVE IRON-CLAD RULES

One of the iron-clad rules of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce provides that under no circumstances will soliciting of business by excursionists be tolerated. The party hopes that their coming visit here will be as pleasant to the visited as they are sure it will be to them.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 13.—When the splendid train of Pullman palace cars pulls out of Pittsburgh Tuesday morning, May 20, for a tour of a portion of Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky, the two bankers, merchants and manufacturers will visit a section of the country and shake hands with merchants and prominent business men whose neighbors supply Pittsburgh with thousands of cases of eggs, much poultry and thousands of pounds of butter every year.

It is interesting to note that the value of the egg output of the country is far in excess of the value of manufactured steel products. The Muskingum, Kanawha and Ohio valleys and the intermediate country have long supplied Pittsburgh with these indispensable articles and the consumption is increasing in Pittsburgh every year. Likewise the buying from these sections. These facts have been learned after careful investigation by the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce whose members will visit the section referred to, on their thirteenth annual trade extension tour.

It requires a tremendous amount of work to arrange the details of a tour such as involves a visit to McDonald, Steubenville, Dennison, Uhrichsville, New Philadelphia, Canal Dover, Coshocton, Newark, Zanesville, New Lexington, Lancaster, Logan, Athens, Chillicothe, Portsmouth, Ironton, Kenova, Ashland, Caledonia, Huntington and Charleston. The itinerary arranged calls for stops at these places of from 45 minutes to two hours except night stops for a good hard shake and a pleasant word. The details of the tour are being arranged by the trade extension committee of the Chamber of Commerce of which H. W. Neely is the chairman. He has officiated in a similar capacity on every trip ever taken. Although a native of Pittsburgh he began his business career as a traveling salesman through Ohio for the Pittsburgh Dry Goods Co., of which he is the general manager and vice president.

Another prominent member of the committee is Truman S. Morgan, treasurer and general manager of Dodge reports, which keeps tab on the general construction work being carried on throughout the country. His concern being a clearing house for construction information. A. C. Terry, District Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, another member of the committee who will be with the party, started business career as a telegraph messenger and newsboy. He became a telegraph operator and gradually advanced by home study to the position of telegraph engineer. For ten years he was District Manager of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and subsequently accepted his present position.

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of Newark Readers are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are weak. Backache and other kidney ills may follow.

Help the kidneys do their work. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy. Newark people endorse their worth.

Mrs. Charles Cole, 25 1-2 S. Third St., Newark, Ohio, says: "My kidneys were weak and I had backaches. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained at A. F. Crayon & Co.'s drug store, and they made me feel better in every way."

Mrs. Cole is only one of many Newark people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your backaches — if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Cole had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. NEWARK MAN AUTHOR OF FINE WORK

M. R. Scott's latest book, "The Supposed Diary of President Lincoln," covering a period from 1854 to 1865, has just been published and those who have read the diary are loud in their praise of the author's work.

Mr. Scott has shown much knowledge of Lincoln's characteristics and thoughts. He has fallen naturally into Lincoln's own style of speech and this adds much to the interest of the book. Senator Cullom of Illinois, to whom was submitted the first chapter of the work, declared that much of it was substantially Lincoln's own words as he remembered them.

Of particular interest is the reference in the diary to Lincoln's debates with Douglas, already made famous in history.

In addition to the "diary" are a couple of pages of Lincoln anecdotes, which are always interesting and several pages of tributes paid to the martyred president by men famous in public and private life.

ARBOR DAY BEING OBSERVED

Many who saw the school children carrying their trees home yesterday could not help but notice the enthusiasm and interest manifested by the younger generation in beautifying their home city.

Roe Emerson is distributing to the school children of Newark five thousand trees. This distribution is being made at Mr. Emerson's store on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons of this week. To each tree is attached a card, upon which is printed the instructions for planting, and if these are carefully followed, and the tree properly cared for during the hot summer months there is little doubt but what each pupil's tree will grow, and Newark will be a more beautiful city because of it.

MILITIA BOYS WERE ACCORDED FINE TREATMENT

Of the treatment received by Company G, while in Columbus, Captain Verne Priest said that every thing was done to make the boys feel at home. He was very loud in his praise of Dr. Embrick, superintendent of the Imbecile Asylum in West Columbus, who extended every courtesy within his power. The building was turned completely over to the forty-three men and three officers of his company. The boys had good bunks, running hot or cold water and everything comfortable. An automobile and an auto truck were at their disposal during the eleven days they were there. Several stray dogs were taken care of by the company. Captain Priest was with his company the last five days, but was unable to get there sooner, due to the high water in West Virginia. The company was on duty fifteen days, four in Newark.

SCHWAB SPENDS 16 HOURS ENROUTE TO SPRINGFIELD

Catcher Louis Schwab of Indianapolis, with the Newark team last year, had hard time reaching Springfield and did not arrive until nearly 10 o'clock last evening, after leaving his home at 6:05 yesterday morning, says the Springfield Sun. The worst part about the trip was that he got on a train loaded with laborers who were coming this way to repair some tracks that had been washed away.

Schwab learned that the train would leave the Indianapolis City at 6 o'clock and hiked to the station bright and early. He got on the train, but on finding that it was not the train he took a train back over the Indiana line to Union City, intending to get another start. When he got back he found he had just missed the fast train by about 15 minutes.

Later he boarded a train and got off at Bellefontaine. During the long ride and plenty of changes, Schwab swears that he had only one sandwich, and upon arrival he hid himself to a restaurant to get something to eat.

Schwab is well remembered by the fans, as he caught a number of games for the Springfield team before going on to Newark, of the Ohio State League. He has improved a hundred per cent and will hustle for a place on the team.

PRESIDENT WILL PITCH FIRST BALL

Washington, April 10.—President Wilson arranged his business at the White House offices so he could attend the opening game here today between the Washington and New York Americans and to toss the first ball from his box to Manager Griffith. Clouds that threatened rain finally broke away but a cold raw wind swept the diamond and grandstand.

COUNTRY PEN SITE

(Continued from page 1.) Kilpatrick said Governor Cox was more than ever in favor of the project yesterday morning, when about to start on a tour of the flood districts.

Mr. Snyder thought the project should be postponed, though it was in the Democratic platform, because, since the flood, the state could not afford the expense.

The bill creates a commission of four members, with authority to buy 2,500 acres or less and make plans, the work of building to be done by the state board of administration. The bill does not specify that the site is to be in any special location.

The state prison farm at Morgan's Station comprise 1665 acres.

The house also passed Senator Mooney's bill authorizing the transfer of prisoners from one penal institution to another and of insane patients from one state hospital to another.

The Black bill, authorizing the state board of administration to pay a portion of the earnings of convicts to their families, was ordered to the final vote calendar. Cost of maintenance must be deducted from earnings before paying them to the prisoner's family.

Everybody reads the Want Column

Questions and Answers

Did Jefferson go to his inauguration ceremonies on horseback?

This has always been a much disputed question, but the best historians insist that he walked.

Did Wilson poll a larger vote than Sulzer in New York city?

Yes. Wilson got 312,386, Sulzer 304,006.

What is the area of the republic of Panama?

About 31,570 square miles.

What is best to use on top of jelly glasses to keep the jelly from molding?

There is nothing better than cotton batting for preventing mold forming on the top of all kinds of preserves. Lay the batting over the mouth of the jar and tie with a strong string. Over this covering, string and all, paste a bit of white paper dipped into the beaten white of an egg. The sealing should not be delayed, as jellies exposed to the air are apt to gather damp.

Do the army engineers make the coast and geodetic surveys?

No; the department of commerce has charge of the bureau.

Was James Bryce, British ambassador at Washington, appointed a member of the permanent court of arbitration at The Hague?

Yes.

How can I take rust off steel?

Kerosene is a good medium for removing rust from steel, but the article will require polishing afterward. Rusted steel should be soaked in any kind of oil for some hours or overnight if thought necessary; then it should be washed and scrubbed in hot soap suds to remove all grease and finally be rubbed with sandpaper or finer emery to give a polish. If the rust has eaten into the steel, then there is nothing to do but to send it to be refinished.

What is the rice crop of the world?

It is impossible to give an accurate estimate, for so many countries growing rice furnish no statistics. In 1911 Egypt, Italy, Japan, Spain and the United States produced about 438,000,000 bushels.

COLUMBUS COPS TESTIFY HERE

Officers William Smith, William Smith, Ed Nichols, M. Bennington, Hugh Sells and Pat Morrison, all of the Columbus police department, were in Newark Thursday morning and appeared before the grand jury and offered testimony against the four men held at the county jail on a charge of blowing the safe in the Boston jewelry store in Granville. The officers figured in the arrest of the four men in an interurban car on the same day of the safe blowing.

INCREASED FORCE NECESSARY TO GET OUT WORK

The force of the Lincoln Laundry on Jackson street has nearly been doubled and the increased force is working overtime in order to take care of the local work and the work of the Eclipse laundry which was destroyed in Zanesville.

Mr. J. W. Frazier, manager of the local laundry was interviewed with Mr. Rae in the Eclipse laundry at Zanesville. A new plant had just been erected in that city and it was completely destroyed. Now all the work of the Zanesville concern is being done in Newark and shipped to the stricken city. An expert dry cleaner and assistant, a washman and assistant and ten girls, hand ironing experts, have been brought to Newark from Zanesville.

This arrangement will be continued until the work can be resumed and a new plant established in Zanesville.

FLOOD WATERS UNEARTH BONES EAST OF CITY

P. C. Ryan, residing east of the city, brought to the office of Dr. Harry Postle in East Church street Thursday afternoon a number of bones of a skeleton found in the sandy soil in the vicinity of Stadden's Bridge. Though the bones have apparently lain in the grave for many years, they are in a remarkable state of preservation. It is evidently the skeleton of a very large man, probably an Indian, though it was impossible to determine positively. Portions of the upper and lower left jaw bones were included in the lot and these contained a perfect set of teeth in a remarkable state of preservation. The skeleton was probably unearthed by the recent flood and the bones were lying partially covered in the position in which the body had been buried.

Both Seaton and Rucker pitching brilliant ball, the former just shading the noted southpaw in a 1 to 0 shut-out.

The opening ceremonies were impressive, the two teams parading across the field headed by a band, and Borough President Alfred E. Steers threw out the first ball.

WILL PRESENT "SWEET LAVENDER" FOR PLAY GROUND

On Friday evening, April 11, the Thalian and Athenian literary societies will present the ever popular comedy, "Sweet Lavender." This play has proven to be a phenomenal success wherever presented, and is in fact more of a modern fairy story than a realistic study of life. It thoroughly conforms to the avowed design of the author, Mr. Pinero, to make it of entertaining value. There is a large royalty on the play, as it is now being presented by several first class companies in the United States, and is now being played at Terry's in England, and is being introduced into the Antipodes.

The cast is well selected and includes the best talent in the high school as the two societies make a specialty of dramatic and literary work. Miss Vance, the brilliant and competent coach, has had the play under preparation for four months and the characters will be impersonated by the following:

Mr. Geoff Wedderburn, a rich banker..... Paul Grove
Clement Hale, his adopted son, studying for the bar..... Theodore Neal
Dick Phenyl, a barrister..... Ivan Green
Horace Bream, a young American..... Gray Swingle
Mr. Maw, a solicitor..... Russell Rinef
Mr. Bulzer, a hairdresser..... Miller Taafel
Mrs. Gillfillan, a widow..... Mr. Wedderburn's sister..... Thelma Heyman
Minnie, her daughter..... Juliet Besuden
Ruth Holt, housekeeper and laundress..... Mary Bell McLain
Lavender, her daughter..... Elizabeth Spencer

The scene is laid in England and from several of the earlier rehearsals, which the writer witnessed, it can not help but please. It should be well patronized as it is for the benefit of

LET the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his strength will soon fade. One's stamina—forcefulness and strength of mind or muscle depend upon the blood, and the blood in turn requires a healthy stomach, for the stomach is the laboratory where the food is digested and such elements are taken up—or assimilated—which make blood. In consequence all the organs of the body, such as heart, lungs, liver and kidneys, as well as the nervous system, feel the bad effect if the stomach is deranged.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Helps the stomach to digest food properly, starts the liver into new activity, removing the poisons from the blood, and the various organs get rich, red blood, instead of being ill nourished. The refreshing influence of this extract of native medicinal plants has been favorably known for over 40 years. Everywhere some neighbor can tell you of the good it has done.

Sold by all medicine dealers in liquid or tablet form, or sent direct to you by Dr. Pierce, Littlefield, Buffalo, and a trial box will be mailed you.

CAME VERY NEAR BEING MAROONED IN BUCKEYE LAKE

Charles Schaller who is spending the week hunting ducks at the lake, had succeeded in bagging 50 up on Wednesday evening. Ducks have been plentiful at the lake and Mr. Schaller, who is an excellent shot, has been getting his full quota. He had quite an experience Wednesday and came very near being marooned in a duck blind for the night. After loading Mr. Rex Jones' basket, which he accompanied him to the park to catch the 11 o'clock car and then got into a row boat to cross the lake to Sherman Bauman's. In pulling against the current, one of the oars broke and he worked for an hour with the single oar, finally landing in a duck blind, where he remained until darkness began falling when fortunately a passing hunter in a row boat heard Mr. Schaller's shout and went to his assistance, else he would have been marooned all night, which would have been anything but a pleasant experience.

Thursday Mr. Schaller will be lost to a number of friends at his cottage in the Park. "The Old House," at which time a duck and fish supper will be served and in the supervision of Mr. Lawrence Beck, one of the most noted carriers of Columbus, who with a party of friends is enjoying a several days' sojourn at the lake. Two large wild geese sent to Mr. Schaller by friends in the south will form part of the menu.

FLOODED DISTRICTS

In Zanesville there were many homes swept away in the racing floods which were the property of the humbler working classes. In many cases the owners have lost everything except the ground on which their homes stood. They have not the means to erect a home in which to live. The plan is to give them a new start, is one that appeals to business men for two reasons. One is, that it will give the workman new courage and determination to face life's struggles and the other is that the workmen so necessary to the success of Zanesville will be retained here so the factories can run.

Governor Cox did not delay his visit to Zanesville because he did not have the situation here on his mind. Reports reached his office that things were in fairly good condition here, which caused him to work hard in other parts of the state, going night and day to look over the ground visited by the destructive floods in other sections of the state. He is greatly exercised over the situation in Ohio, in the flood districts and promised the business men and those in charge of the local situation, when he talked to them on Wednesday that the people in Zanesville will be well taken care of along with the other cities in the state where the floods washed away millions of dollars worth of property.

The state officials have all been greatly interested in the work of rehabilitating the homes of people who suffered in the floods and see that it means the expenditure of millions of dollars before permanent relief is assured.

It will take months to rebuild and see the people back in their homes in Zanesville and other cities visited by the floods. It has been stated that Ohio did not expect to donate money toward rehabilitating the stricken homes in Zanesville. Such is not the case, according to reports from Governor Cox's party. This city, as well as all others in the state will be well taken care of, but the money will be distributed in a systematic way.

DAYTON BANKS DOING BUSINESS

Dayton, O., April 10.—The banks of Dayton now are open and business is fast becoming normal. The deposits exceed the withdrawals two to one. This is the statement made today by a director of the City National Bank.

Banks in Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus and Springfield have had representatives here offering assistance. Unlimited aid has been tendered. In each instance the offers were declined as the money is not believed to be needed. The situation shows that a monetary panic has not followed the flood and none is expected. Only one of the 21 building and savings associations is doing business. The offices of all the other associations were flooded and the books and records are being prepared for business. There were no withdrawals from the one opened. It is believed that the same conditions will exist when the others resume business. The financial situation at present and in the future is very promising regardless of the surroundings of wrecked homes and impaired business conditions.

State Building Inspector Thomas P. Kearns, who has been here for a week with assistants, who have been condemning buildings that have been damaged by the flood, has about completed his work. He has labeled, condemned a large number of residences and small storehouses in all quarters of the flooded districts. These must be torn down.

PORTSMOUTH IS FAST IMPROVING

Portsmouth, O., April 10.—A cold and heavy rain, which fell yesterday, retarded the work of cleaning and added greatly to the misery of flood sufferers. The water works has regained normal pressure and the flushing of streets can now proceed in earnest. Alleys, which are choked with drift and debris, will be invaded next.

Lime, blankets and bed clothing continue in great demand. More

Engineer Julian Griggs of Columbus has been engaged by the county commissioners to direct the work of restoring bridges.

NORMAL CONDITIONS RESUMING
Delaware, O., April 10.—All militia on duty here since March 25, have been released, except a few, to guard supplies. Conditions are rapidly becoming normal. The relief committee is making a complete census of all damages and hopes to be in a position to make the required Red Cross reports in a few days. Red Cross representatives were yesterday in conference here. A Big Four bridge crew began the restoration of a destroyed railroad bridge.

FAYETTE'S LOSS IS $15,000.
Washington C. H., April 10.—The damage done by the recent floods to the bridges and roads of Fayette county is placed at $15,000.

MAN IS SHOT AT MARIETTA.
Marietta, April 10.—T. J. Graham, employee of a gas company, is dying at Marietta Hospital as the result of a gunshot wound in the abdomen. Graham was found in Ferguson's livery barn after three men were seen to leave it. Militiamen captured the suspected men and took them before Colonel Knox, this city being under martial law.

FEAR ANOTHER FLOOD.
Port Clinton, April 10.—Residents along the Portage river are preparing for another flood and are ready to leave their homes if the water continues to rise. In the lowlands water stands nearly five feet.

FLOOD INSURANCE URGED.
Cincinnati, April 10.—An Ohio state flood insurance organization was urged today by Dr. Curberson, United States naval flood expert, in charge of flood districts in Ohio, in his report to the navy department.

HEBRON BOY IS ENTERED IN CONTEST

Howard Claggett, R. F. D. No. 2, Hebron, O., has filed an entry blank in the acre of corn contest with the Ohio Department of Agriculture. At least 200 more boys are wanted. The prospect of a free trip to Washington is a great incentive, but some ardent boys are slow to take hold. Some farmers are lukewarm others are adverse. Probably they fear the boys will "eat 'em" raising corn.

Secretary Sandles has over four thousand requests from farmer boys for contest blanks and rules, but they are difficult in returning entries. In some counties each township is offering from one to three free trips to Washington. D. C. Bankers, merchants, grain dealers and progressive farmers are pushing the movement and are raising the funds for these trips. Young country boys should "swim up" and get in the game. Write to Secretary A. P. Sandles, Columbus, O., for full details.
